

HER HOARSENESS

Prevented Madame Blauvelt from Singing in Wheeling.

THERE WAS DISAPPOINTMENT

IN THE MUSICAL COLONY LAST EVENING ON ACCOUNT OF THE MISHAP—THE FAMOUS SINGER MAY COME TO WHEELING IN FEBRUARY—THE FREDERIC ARCHER RECITAL EXCITES INTEREST—NEXT WEEK'S PHILHARMONIC RECITAL.

FROM SATURDAY TO SATURDAY. Monday evening, 8 o'clock—Oratorio Society. Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock—Oratorio Society. Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock—Oratorio Society. Thursday evening, 8 o'clock—Oratorio Society. Friday evening, 8 o'clock—Oratorio Society. Saturday evening, 8 o'clock—Oratorio Society.

"Seated one day at the organ I was weary and ill at ease. And my fingers wandered idly over the keys. I knew not what I was playing. Or what I was dreaming then. But I struck one chord of music. Like the sound of a great Amen."

The coming of Frederic Archer, organist, known throughout the artistic world as one of the greatest, is now uppermost in the mind of Musical Wheeling, since the had-to-be-broken engagement of Lillian Blauvelt last night, precludes dwelling on the outcome of her Wheeling appearance. Madame Blauvelt reached the city last evening, after scoring a distinct triumph in Cincinnati. A telegram preceding her, announced "hoarseness" in which word all singers will appreciate the calamity, and her compliment to a Wheeling audience was implied when she refused in such a condition to sing to it, rather depriving it of any pleasure than to give it due and merited worth. Some of the members of the club met her at the depot, and found her suffering with intense hoarseness, which Madame Blauvelt said evidenced itself the night before, but she determined to come to Wheeling to prove her sincerity. Her charming personality and genuineness of expression, made the regret of her inability even more felt. However, as she expressed a desire to sing in Wheeling, at the first possible opportunity, which in February, such arrangements may be made and the interest born of last night's keen disappointment, will be redoubled to the glory of the Woman's Musical Club, which worked so untiringly to bring to Wheeling this artist, who seems to be taking the country by storm.

Until then, all thoughts turn to Frederic Archer. That name is not unknown to Musical Wheeling; it has been read and heard in connection with the finest orchestra concert ever given here. It is a name which places Pittsburgh in the front rank of musical centers of the United States. Indeed, from present achievements, promises of future possibilities are such that it may be looked upon as the coming pivotal music-point. It is Frederic Archer, who inaugurated the series of free organ recitals in Pittsburgh, so much appreciated by lovers of music, and which opened an avenue toward better citizenship, which was eagerly taken advantage of, hundreds having been recently turned from the door, so attractive have they become.

A revival of interest in organ music everywhere is now on. Movers of that kind of instruments and its capabilities, will have the opportunity to hear it, Monday evening, December 12, at the Fourth Street M. E. church, and to encourage, by their presence, a true musician, interpreting the following magnificent programme:

- 1. Offertoire in C Minor.....E. Baltes
- 2. Andante in E Minor.....H. Smart
- 3. Concert in F Major.....J. L. Kreh
- 4. (a) Andante in A Flat.....A. Gullman
- 5. Marche in A Major.....Gullman
- 6. Fantasia Originale.....Waly

PART II. Transcriptions by Frederic Archer. 1. Fete Boheme (Tribute to Zamboni). 2. Larghetto (Piano to Cello). 3. Shadow Air (Dinorah). 4. Allegro Con Moto (Piano to Cello). 5. Overture, "La Bayadere".....Auber

The above extraordinary music will be drawn from the finest organ in the city.

By the way, negotiations are on, for a new organ in St. Matthew's P. E. church, which fact is gladly received, for there is where an attempt at a series of rare recitals, to the pleasure and church plan, was begun, which should again be resumed and kept up.

The past week brought to the notice of Musical Wheeling, Miss Anna Jones, a young girl with a remarkable contralto voice, of much promise. She will sing in Allegheny next week, as the soloist to a chorus of one hundred voices. All who heard her here will vouchsafe her the cordial reception she merits.

The coming week contains two attractions which enter to north and south of the bridge audiences. The charity concert, to be given in Pythian Castle, Tuesday evening, by the King's Daughters of the Christian Street M. E. church, will be one of the best local talent concert ever given in that part of town, and with it begins a time when, "for the best," there will be no need to always come to Twentieth street and above. The programme follows:

- Grand Valse Brillante (Piano).....Miss Flora Williams
- Mrs. E. B. Ryan, Miss Flora Williams, Lullaby.....Mrs. E. B. Ryan, Miss Flora Williams
- Meditation sur le ver Pseudo de Piano (Violin).....Miss Flora Williams
- Heart's Delight.....Miss Flora Williams
- Panicle.....Miss Flora Williams
- Reading.....Mrs. E. B. Ryan, Miss Flora Williams
- (a) Lullaby.....Miss Flora Williams
- (b) Bonnie Jean.....Miss Flora Williams
- Las. Night.....Miss Flora Williams
- The Land of the Swallows (voices).....Miss Flora Williams
- Mrs. E. B. Ryan, Miss Flora Williams, Miss Abby Ruff, Accompanist.

The other concert takes place Tuesday evening, in the Carroll Club auditorium, and will prove one of the best yet given by the Philharmonic Quartet. It seems unnecessary to say that a large audience should assemble. Wheeling music lovers should realize by this time that the Philharmonic concerts are treats of the highest order, as well as the greatest possible education, and that they are open to the public. The programme printed below, will give an idea of the pleasurable musical evening in store: Schubert.....Quartet, Op. 125, No. 1. Allegro moderato. Scherzo (Prestissimo). Adagio. Mozart.....Trio for Piano, Violon and Cello, No. 4. Allegro. Andante cantabile. Allegro. INTERMISSION. Mendelssohn.....Lied Ohne Worte (Spring Song). Victor Herbert.....Serenade. (Piano, Violon and Violoncello). Beethoven.....Quartet, Op. 15, No. 5. Allegro. Minuetto. Andante cantabile con variazioni. Philharmonic Quartet.....Mr. H. M. Schock, Violon and Piano; Mr. A. Farber, Violon; Mr. Edw. R. members Violon and Viola; Mr. Fred Meyer, Violoncello.

Sherwood, pianist at Washington, Pa., to-day, will give a concert at the Pythian Castle, Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock. The programme is as follows: Schubert.....Quartet, Op. 125, No. 1. Allegro moderato. Scherzo (Prestissimo). Adagio. Mozart.....Trio for Piano, Violon and Cello, No. 4. Allegro. Andante cantabile. Allegro. INTERMISSION. Mendelssohn.....Lied Ohne Worte (Spring Song). Victor Herbert.....Serenade. (Piano, Violon and Violoncello). Beethoven.....Quartet, Op. 15, No. 5. Allegro. Minuetto. Andante cantabile con variazioni. Philharmonic Quartet.....Mr. H. M. Schock, Violon and Piano; Mr. A. Farber, Violon; Mr. Edw. R. members Violon and Viola; Mr. Fred Meyer, Violoncello.

The Opera House orchestra, has settled the date for its concert for December 16, and a real treat may be expected, but of this more next week. The Opera House has decided upon the holiday season for its first public appearance, making the thing between now and January 1, 1898, fully taken up as follows:

Tuesday, December 7, Philharmonic concert. Tuesday, December 7, Charity Concert. Monday, December 13, Frederic Archer. Tuesday, December 14, "Bits from Operas." (Dramas of Famous Women). Thursday, December 16, Opera House Orchestra Concert. Friday, December 17, Bach and Handel (continued) Woman's Club Matinee. Tuesday, December 22, Philharmonic Club celebration of Beethoven's anniversary. Wednesday, December 23, Orpheus Concert. Saturday, December 25, exceptional music in all churches.

WIRE TRUST

Will Take in Every Wire, Wire Rod and Wire Nail Plant in the Country.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 3.—The Pittsburgh Leader published to-day the details of the proposed wire trust. The facts gathered, it is claimed, are from an authoritative source and are vouchered for by parties interested in the deal. The combination will have a capital of $50,000,000 and is backed by J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. of New York. It will take in every wire, wire rod and wire nail plant in the United States, and besides two blast furnaces, one of which has its own supply, and three steel plants, such an arrangement will be made and the interest born of last night's keen disappointment, will be redoubled to the glory of the Woman's Musical Club, which worked so untiringly to bring to Wheeling this artist, who seems to be taking the country by storm.

Appraisers are now at work fixing the value of the different plants which are to be bought up, and they are expected to get through with their work by February, when the consolidation of the interests will probably be finally effected.

Window Glass Troubles Settled.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 3.—The trouble in the national window glass workers' association was amicably settled this afternoon by President Burns paying over $25,000 to the cutters and fitters, and the latter formally withdrawing from the association. There will be two organizations of glass workers hereafter, one composed of the blowers and gatherers and the other of the fitters and cutters. The wage scale will now be adjusted and a general resumption of work is expected before the end of the year. The court proceedings have been called off.

DON'T be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit—Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This note, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Hueneville, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family several years." It cures rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by druggists.

A True Maxim.

Nothing succeeds like success, is a maxim well applied to Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, for this famous remedy succeeds in curing every case of cough, cold and croup which it undertakes, and to this alone is due its wonderful popularity. Mrs. E. W. Richards, 224 E. Cumberland St., Philadelphia, Pa., states: "I have had Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup on my bureau for the last nine years, and have found it a certain and safe cure for croup. I have also found it efficacious in extreme membranous croup, and would advise all mothers to use it." Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup costs only 25 cents, and you should bear in mind, that substitutes simply benefit the dealer's purse. In that you are open to the public. The programme printed below, will give an

SOCIETY.

Though the shops are full of temptations to holiday season celebrating, Wheeling hostesses seem to possess the sorceress' talisman of charm, and almost every afternoon and evening of the week just ending has been the occasion of the gathering of society in the home of some one of them.

Many notable functions occurred this week, including the McMillen-Ewing wedding at St. Matthew's P. E. church. Miss Ewing, a beautiful girl, made a dainty little bride, and many and sincere were the congratulations showered upon her and her husband.

The reception given to society at large in honor of Mrs. Clark Armour and Miss Tough, of Kansas City, by Mrs. William Hearne, at her residence, South Front street, Island, Thursday, was another brilliant gathering.

At the entertainment to the Island Progressive Euchre club and its guests, Thursday, by Miss Alice McCabe Hughes and her sister, Miss Belle McCabe at the family residence, Penn street, Island, the honors of the afternoon fell to Mrs. Willie W. Irwin, Mrs. W. W. Arnett and Miss Helen Devlin.

Other events were Miss Lydia Good's at-home to the Twentieth Century Girls, and their guests, Miss Hubbard, of Pasadena, Miss Thompson, of New York; Mrs. T. Reed McKnight, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Charles H. Fane, of Wheeling, and Mrs. Kate Caldwell, of Eunis, Texas, at the family residence on Fourteenth street, Thursday, the entertaining of the Charity Whist Club, by Mrs. Charles H. Taney, Byron and Thirteenth streets, Monday afternoon; the reception to Colonial Dames, Monday evening, by Miss Clara Chalmers, at her residence, 1212 E. Main street; Miss Kate Hazlett's at-home to the Bachelor Maids and their houseguests, at the residence of her father, Dr. R. H. Hazlett, North Main street, Friday; the doll show at Altenheim, Thursday.

The coming week, according to Dame Rumor, is full of affairs at which Mrs. Clark Armour and Miss Tough are to be the distinguished guests, but the one to be given in their honor by Mr. Julian G. Hearne, at the Carroll Club auditorium, Monday night, will be the most brilliant initiation dance ever given in this city.

The Philharmonic Club will be entertained by the Quartet, Tuesday night.

Other prominent affairs to come off are with Miss Gene Friend hostess, Monday afternoon, at her home, corner Virginia and South Penn streets, Island; and Miss Evelyn Jepson, hostess, at the Pendleton residence, Twelfth street, Friday night, and the entertainers' names assure an enjoyable time to all received.

Mr. Charles W. Paxton is home from the east.

Mrs. T. Reed McKnight, of Pittsburgh, nee Miss Lydia McMeachen, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George K. McMeachen, Chapline street.

Louis Grubb, Harvey Pollock and George Wise, Jr., will be home next week for the Christmas vacation. They are at school at Lawrenceville.

Miss Eliza Speldei, who is at school in New York, will be home for the holiday season.

Miss Anna Jones, of Zanesville, Ohio, whose voice made such an impression at the charity concert, Monday night, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Gibson Lamb.

Miss Hammond, of Steubenville, is the guest of Mrs. George Park.

Mr. Charles W. Ott is recognized as a prominent member of the Player's Club, of this city, wherever he travels, which proves that the club has made for itself an enviable reputation through the state and that its public appearances should not be so few. Wheeling has many clubs, but few with so much talent as passport to entrance, and such are the ones society should encourage.

MR. C. M. DIXON, a well known merchant of Littleton, Colo., Fulton County, Pa., has a little girl who is frequently threatened with croup, but when the first symptoms appear, his wife gives her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which always affords prompt relief. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by druggists.
